

Just a brief note to express my support for allowing unlicensed use of unused TV channel spectrum. Here in the Chicago area, over half of the VHF spectrum is unused, and wireless telephones, wireless data networking, and other such equipment are heavily used. Equipment manufacturers have demonstrated their ability to build equipment that shares spectrum, and skips unavailable spectrum.

Thanks for considering such an excellent proposal.